PRESS RELEASES

Megan MacCallum Elected to Cleveland Chapter Board for Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals

JUNE 5, 2025

Benesch is pleased to announce that Managing Associate Megan MacCallum of the firm's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group have been elected to the Cleveland Chapter Board of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP) for the 2025-2027 term.

Megan will serve as Vice President of Programs, overseeing the planning and execution of the Chapter's educational programming and events.

CSCMP is a global association dedicated to connecting, educating and developing supply chain professionals throughout their careers. The Cleveland Chapter plays a vital role in providing networking and educational opportunities to supply chain leaders across Northeast Ohio.

Megan MacCallum

Megan counsels clients across industries, modes and all aspects of the supply chain, helping them navigate the legal and business issues that impact transportation, logistics and international trade operations. She represents retailers, technology companies, distributors, manufacturers, carriers, brokers, warehousemen, and logistics providers. Her work includes compliance counseling, contract drafting and negotiation, M&A representation and strategic business guidance. Megan is trained in export controls and certified in hazardous materials compliance for ground transportation. She has been recognized as a 2024 Women in Supply Chain Rising Star by Supply & Demand Chain Executive.

Learn more.