Flex brings "Sketch to Scale" capabilities to many of the world's best-known companies, designing, manufacturing and distributing a variety of brand-name electronics and consumer goods on a contract or outsourcing basis. To help keep its complex global supply chain from getting bogged down with legal issues, Flex relies on Benesch. We work with Melissa and her team to stay ahead of all types of commercial disputes and litigation—from IP matters to contracts to M&A deals and more.
