

Business supplies for a productive, efficient office

The State Bar is proud to announce that its newest member benefit is Office360, one of the largest, fastest-growing, independently owned office products suppliers in the country, recognized last year by TriMega Purchasing Association as #1. Not only does Office360 provide competitive pricing on top supplies, but it also offers free, next-day delivery with no minimum order requirement – anywhere in the continental United States!

“We find that as a local company we can really improve the level of service and also be the low-cost provider compared to the big three – Office Depot, OfficeMax and Staples – who have most of the business out there,” says Steve Nahmias, who owns and manages Office360 along with brothers Scott and Lenny.

Many central Indiana law firms already enjoy Office360's high-quality service and appreciate the personal touch Office360 brings. Service such as delivery of copy paper to specific office locations, customized website ordering systems, financial reporting and more is available to better manage a firm's overall supply spend. Products offered include traditional office supplies, ink & toner, cleaning & breakroom supplies, and office furniture.

Office360 is proud to partner with such firms as Bose McKinney & Evans, Scopelitis Garvin Light Hanson & Feary, Cohen & Malad, Campbell Kyle & Proffitt, and many more.
