

Thursday, May 16, 2013
2:00 – 3:30 P.M.

Reception to follow

CYBER SECURITY: Past, Present and Future

Approved for 1.5 CLE credit hours

Thursday, May 16, 2013
2:00 – 3:30 P.M.

Reception to follow

Ritz-Carlton

Riverview Room

1515 W. 3rd Street | Cleveland, OH 44113

Please RSVP by May 14 to MEGAN PAJAKOWSKI at (216) 363-4639 or mpajakowski@beneschlaw.com.

Please join Benesch, along with the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Ohio and an expert panel, for a presentation on what the FBI has identified as a leading threat to our national security: Cyber Crime. We have assembled some of the most knowledgeable professionals in this field to assist you in identifying threat factors and necessary safeguards. Whether you are concerned about the security of financial, proprietary, intellectual, medical or personal information, this seminar will be of great interest to you, your company, your customers and the public.

Keynote Speaker

STEVE DETTELBACH, U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Ohio

Moderator

PETE C. ELLIOTT, Partner and Vice-Chair, Litigation Practice Group, Benesch

Panelists

ROBERT C. BURCH, Chief Information Security Officer, Key Enterprise Technology, KeyCorp

SPECIAL AGENT MICHAEL BRIAN, Cleveland FBI, Cyber Intrusion Squad

SHANE SIMS, Director, Advisory–Forensics Practice with emphasis in cybercrime and national security, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

MICHAEL D. STOVSKY, Partner and Chair, Innovations, Information Technology & Intellectual Property (3iP) Practice Group, Benesch

