Caroline A. Schneider joined Fitch, Even, Tabin & Flannery LLP as an associate.

Her practice encompasses U.S. and international patent prosecution and preparation and legal opinions, assisting clients in the chemical, electrochemical, information technology, automotive and food science industries.

•

Benesch Friedlander Coplan & Aronoff LLP added Daryll V. Marshall as a partner in the corporate and securities practice group.

Marshall represents lenders and borrowers but primarily focuses on private equity sponsors, public and private corporate borrowers in connection with leveraged buyout financings for acquisitions, working capital facilities, recapitalizations and portfolio restructuring transactions across a broad range of business sectors, including technology, apparel, transportation, automotive, energy, health care, manufacturing and professional services.

He will also serve as chair of the corporate/private equity finance group.

•

The Association of Corporate Counsel Chicago chapter will name the Thurgood Marshall Award of Excellence recipient at its annual In-House Counsel Celebration on Thursday from 6 to 9 p.m. at Morgan Manufacturing, 401 N. Morgan St.

The award honors individuals who serve as role models through their significant achievement in the legal profession, civic excellence and/or their contributions to promote education, diversity and community service.

The event will also feature a variety of culinary stations, live music and classic carnival games.
