Juan Morado Jr.

William H. Schriver

Duane Morris LLP promoted Christopher T. Grohman to partnership.

Grohman practices white-collar criminal defense and complex civil litigation.

He has experience conducting and defending fraud investigations, including those focusing on Medicare/Medicaid fraud and violations of anti-money laundering laws.

•

Levenfeld Pearlstein LLC added William H. Schriver as a partner in its real estate practice group.

He focuses particularly on representing investors and operators in negotiating joint venture agreements, including multitiered, platform and preferred equity structures for a variety of real estate assets.

•

Benesch, Friedlander, Coplan & Aronoff LLP partner Juan Morado Jr. was appointed by Chicago Bar Association President Jesse H. Ruiz to serve on CBA’s board of managers.

As a board member, Morado will be tasked with building stronger connections between the CBA and diverse bar associations throughout Chicago and finding out how those bar groups can better support each other.

Morado is a health-care regulatory and policy attorney who advises hospitals, health systems, physician groups, consulting firms, pharmacies and other clients.

He is a member of Benesch’s health-care and life sciences practice group.
