Benesch Friedlander Coplan & Aronoff LLP partner Jason S. Greis spoke at the 38th Annual Illinois Association of Healthcare Attorneys Health Law Symposium, "Health Law 2020: Building the Plane While Flying It" on Nov. 9. He took part in the virtual roundtable discussion, "Navigating Your Career Path: Law School and Beyond," which delved into best practices for navigating a law career, during and after law school.

Greis and the panel shared their insights on landing the first job out of law school, as well as networking tips, gaining experience in different areas of health law, and growing a reputation in the health law community.
