

That deal of yours?

It's never
"just business."

Every acquisition, every financing transaction, every purchase or sale is the most important thing in the life of your business at that moment.

So I make it mine, too.

Whether you're a private company staking the firm on your first big deal or a global conglomerate navigating your latest multimillion-dollar merger, I see you through it, with sound counsel, sophisticated experience and practical representation.

Deals aren't about winners and losers.

They're about agreeing on how to solve the puzzle. That means understanding the big picture for you and your business.

Finding the value hidden in the details.

Putting the pieces, and the people, together to get the deal done.

I'm BILL DORAN.

I'm on your team.
