

I am a matchmaker for your business.

As an M&A attorney, I match businesses with opportunities, and opportunities with the resources to turn them into reality.

All around the world.

Executing cross-border transactions and doing deals.

Inbound and outbound, to and from Western Europe, the Far East, India, South America, and right here in North America.

My clients value the international experience I bring to the table, and the perspective to understand what both sides are looking for.

What to push for, push back on, or even walk away from.

But mostly I push forward, making connections and managing global and local resources on my clients' behalf.

I log 100,000+ miles in the air every year—and actually enjoy it.

But what I like most is to see your business take off after we pull all the pieces together and get the deal done.

I'm BOB ROSS.

I'm on your team.
