

While others focus on obstacles, I find solutions.

Conducting business in health care is routinely more complex than in other industries. Highly regulated. Closely scrutinized. With layers of risk. I welcome the challenge the environment brings. The high stakes that keep it demanding; the human stakes that make it meaningful. I look for ways to make deals and ideas happen. Finding pathways and opportunities for your business, your staff, your patients. I represent individuals and large complex organizations and the gamut of health and service providers in between. If your business is linked to health care, I want to help you keep it strong. To be your strategic advisor. A trusted resource. A partner who brings tremendous value so you can optimize your business outcomes And confidently look forward to what's next.

I'm FRANK CARSONIE.
I'm on your team.
