

I'm not a matchmaker.
I'm an attorney and a relationship builder.

I know what it takes to grow a business.

It's a melding of ambition and opportunity.
A process of carefully matching potential with the resources to realize it.

It's about cultivating relationships.

All while representing interests and managing expectations.

I work with companies
at all stages of growth.

And represent funds and portfolio companies in their quest to invest.

After years of leading our firm's expansion,

I'm acutely aware of the risks and rewards.

So if you're ready to grow,
or ready to invest,
I'm ready to do the deal.

I'm IRA KAPLAN.

I'm on your team.
