By road, air, sea or rail, I know the pitfalls between Point A and Point B.

Losses. Damages. Delays. Disputes.

The transportation and logistics industry is full of hazards.

I'll help you anticipate them, navigate around them,
or avoid them altogether.

I know the industry inside and out, coast to coast
and across the globe.

I support the innovation my clients bring to it.

From multibillion-dollar enterprises to emerging middle market companies to small businesses.

I help them make sense of the complexity.

Cargo. Claims. Contracts. Compliance.

Whatever the need, I'm a trusted advisor for practical advice.

A resource to help them resolve problems,
minimize risks and exploit opportunities.

If you have places you want your business to go,
I'll go the extra mile to help you get there.

I'm MARC BLUBAUGH.

I'm on your team.
