Yelena Boxer and Gregory J. Phillips Named Vice Chairs of Benesch's Litigation Practice Group

Yelena Boxer

Benesch is pleased to announce that Yelena Boxer and Gregory J. Phillips have been named Vice Chairs of the firm's Litigation Practice Group.

Gregory J. Phillips

Chair of the Litigation Practice Group and Vice Chairman of the firm Joseph A. Castrodale said, "Both Yelena and Greg are outstanding litigators who consistently get great results in complex litigation of all kinds. They also possess great leadership skills and they are very well-deserving of these new roles."

Yelena concentrates her practice on complex commercial litigation. She represents publicly traded companies and private small businesses in state and federal jurisdictions nationally. She is experienced in resolving disputes involving intellectual property, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, general tort, real estate, products liability, insurance, construction, employment, securities, probate and elections matters.

Greg litigates all aspects of complex business and commercial cases for public and private companies and individuals. He has argued successfully before the Ohio Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Benesch Named Transportation Law Firm of the Year 53 Attorneys Ranked in Best Lawyers—Three Named "Lawyer of the Year"

Benesch achieved first-tier rankings in 22 national and metropolitan categories in the 2016 U.S. News/Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms" rankings. Additionally, the firm was named "Law Firm of the Year" in Transportation Law. "Law Firm of the Year" designations are based on law firms' overall performance in a given practice area and represent a significant showing in the 2016 U.S. News/Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms" research. Overall, the firm was ranked in 59 national and metropolitan categories.

The rankings are based on an evaluation process that includes client and lawyer evaluations, peer review and a review of additional information provided by law firms as part of the formal submission process.
