

Click to print or Select 'Print' in your browser menu to print this document.

Page printed from: <https://www.law.com/delawarelawweekly/2022/06/20/benesch-lawyer-appointed-president-elect-of-the-dsba/>

Benesch Lawyer Appointed President-Elect of the DSBA

Benesch has announced that Kate Harmon has been elected as president-elect of the Delaware State Bar Association's (DSBA) executive committee.

By Victoria Pfefferle-Gillot | June 20, 2022

Credit: Nuthawut/Adobe Stock

Benesch has announced that Kate Harmon has been elected as president-elect of the Delaware State Bar Association's executive committee.

Prior to this appointment, she served as a member-at-large, assistant treasurer, treasurer, vice president for New Castle County and most recently as DSBA's vice president at-large.

This is Harmon's seventh year serving on the committee, and after serving her term as president-elect in 2022-2023, she is set to become president of the DSBA in 2023.

She previously served as co-chair of the DSBA's women and the law section, concluding her two-year term in that position in June 2021. Harmon has also served on the planning committee for the DSBA's Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Breakfast and Statewide Day of Service, the DSBA professional ethics committee and the DSBA finance committee.

Harmon is an associate in Benesch's litigation department where she helps her clients efficiently identify and execute on innovative solutions to business disputes and questions. She focuses her practice on commercial litigation across industries in Delaware's state and federal courts as well as in courts throughout various other jurisdictions. Harmon also has experience in bankruptcy litigation, corporate litigation, corporate governance, entity formation, nonprofit representation, insurance coverage disputes and intellectual property matters.

Harmon received her J.D. from Temple University Beasley School of Law.

---

Copyright 2022. ALM Global, LLC. All Rights Reserved.