

MY BENESCH

"When we turned to Benesch for help, they brought a level of professionalism to the table that we desperately needed, but didn't realize until after we started working with them. It was eye-opening for us."

BRIAN ROSENSTEIN,
Chief Coordinating Officer

Knowing everything about the business you're in is not the same as knowing how to run a business. Even with 110 years of textile industry experience and expertise behind them, Brian and his team needed help to bring their business practices in line with the realities of today's marketplace. Now, with Benesch at their side, they are transforming TSG Finishing to continue its success for the next 100 years.
