

Every day, I answer the question,
“How do we get it done?”

It might be moving goods around the world
by land, sea, rail, or air,
Unraveling miles of red tape along the way.
It might mean negotiating a critical contract,
answering a regulatory investigation,
closing an M&A deal, resolving a dispute,
or deciphering old-world laws
for the new world of modern supply chains.
Always, it's about solving your problems
efficiently and pragmatically.
Knowing the business need, articulating risk, and executing on a clear path forward.
As an attorney, MBA, licensed customs broker,
and transportation industry veteran,
I work with companies at every link in the supply chain, from raw materials to e-commerce.
Providing practical tactics and strategic vision
to support your operations today
and help you grow for tomorrow.
Breaking down roadblocks, so you can get it done.

I'm JONATHAN TODD.

I'm on your team.
