Washington, D.C.

The International Warehouse Logistics Association brings together the third-party logistics industry's leading legal and insurance experts. These gurus will help guide you and your counsel through evolving regulations, laws, and challenges:

- How to navigate the new landscape of fulfillment & e-commerce legality
- Contracts
- Cyber security and liability
- Claim case studies and real claims
- Healthcare
- Trending legal challenges and pitfalls

The session format allows opportunities to ask questions, share experiences, and participate in discussions.
