In-Transit Inventory Financing: Key Issues for Shippers and Lenders | Jonathan R. Todd

Strafford - Webinar

MARCH 27, 2025

Speakers: Jonathan R. Todd

This CLE webinar will review the legal issues that arise for both shippers/borrowers and for secured lenders when undertaking in-transit inventory financing. The panel will discuss key issues to be addressed in the credit agreement between a shipper/borrower and lender and what key provisions should be included in the agreements between a shipper/borrower and its third-party logistic providers, often required by lenders. The panel will also review the relevant shipping documents and the importance of managing the relationships with operational partners.
