Despite global economic concerns, U.S. deal makers are encouraged by healthy credit markets, rising stock prices, increasing cash reserves, and improving employment numbers. 2015 is expected to be an extremely active year. What's more, not only is acquisition momentum building, but deal value is also on the rise. Regardless of the enthusiasm, however, deal makers recognize successful deals require well-developed strategies to ensure success.

Please join Benesch Executive Chairman, Ira Kaplan; KPMG Transaction Services Partner, Mark Saas; Willis Mergers & Acquisitions expert Laurance Shapiro; and Western Reserve Partners Managing Director, David Dunstan; as they share strategies for helping to ensure a successful acquisition or merger. Our speakers will discuss accessing credit, comprehensive due diligence, transactional risk solutions, and best practices in integration. Moderating our session will be Megan Mehalko, Chair, Benesch's Corporate & Securities Practice Group.
