SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

Representing Whistleblowers During Internal Investigations | Christopher T. Grohman

MARCH 25-27, 2026

Speakers: Christopher T. Grohman

Chicago, Illinois

This panel focused on the legal and practical challenges of representing whistleblowers during internal corporate investigations. The discussion examined key issues such as attorney-client privilege, confidentiality, and the whistleblower's obligations to disclose information during an investigation. Panelists also addressed document related issues, including access to, use of, and risks associated with internal company documents.
