Surveys in a Post-COVID World: Prepare for the Worst | Mark J. Silberman

Illinois Nursing Home Administrators Association - 2022 Virtual Conference

AUGUST 18, 2022

Speakers: Mark J. Silberman

In the aftermath of COVID (which will inevitably be back) the regulatory landscape remains reasonably unchanged, but the number of resources the government diverted are unprecedented. The most reliable source of recoverable funds come from enforcement efforts against healthcare facilities and, skilled nursing facilities are the most likely target available. Obtain insight into areas surveyors are likely to focus upon and what facilities can do to prepare themselves to protect themselves.
