The Great Unknown: COVID Claims on Construction Projects | Thomas O. Crist

Society of Construction Law North America - Webinar

APRIL 12, 2023

Speakers: Thomas O. Crist

Three years out from the onset of COVID and its impact on the construction industry, many claims initially presented in 2020 and 2021 are now working their way through dispute resolution. What types of claims are being made? How are those claims being decided? Join the SCL NA (Prairies Chapter) for an overview of the types of COVID claims available, how best to present those claims, how best to respond to them, and outline how courts and arbitrators to date have decided them.
