The New Normal: Best Practices for Minimizing Employment and Financial Risk in COVID-19 Era | H. Alan Rothenbuecher, Johanna Fabrizio Parker

American Mold Builders Association - Webinar

JUNE 16, 2020

Speakers: H. Alan Rothenbuecher, Johanna Fabrizio Parker

As the country pivots to reopen, questions abound on how employers can safely maintain operations while dealing with a cautious workforce and an uncertain economy.

Join H. Alan Rothenbuecher and Johanna Fabrizio Parker from Benesch as they discuss:

- Onboarding laid-off employees
- Managing fears regarding coming back to work and/or traveling
- Providing and/or requiring certain PPE to comply with CDC rules
- Workplace reconfiguration requirements to maintain employee safety
- Minimizing risk of employee litigation should others be infected at work
- Protecting proprietary information taken offsite by employees
- Strengthening your position if bankruptcy occurs (making use of molder and mold builder liens)
