SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT

The Road to Run: Preparing to Run for Public Office | Robert A. Zimmerman

Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association

OCTOBER 27, 2020

Speakers: Robert A. Zimmerman

"You should run for office!"

If you've heard that before, or have aspirations of running for office, join the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association for part 1 of a 2-part series on the ins and outs of running for public office. Hear from lawyers who have made the leap and are currently in office, as well as both leaders from the Republican and Democratic Parties on what it takes to get the party's nomination. Finally, we will hear from political consultants on messaging and fundraising.

Click here to learn more and register.

The Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association Presents:

The Road To Run:
Preparing To Run for Public Office

A 2-Part Series

Part 1: Tuesday, October 27, 2020 | 9:00 - 11:00 AM

2.0 Hours CLE via Zoom

Program Moderator:
Robert A. Zimmerman
Benesch Friedlander Coplan &Aronoff LLP

Featured Panels:

Why Lawyers Should Run for Office

Matt Dolan,
Ohio State Senator

Lee Fisher,
Dean, Cleveland-Marshall College of Law

Betsy Rader,
Candidate for Ohio State Senate

The Role of Political Parties

Shontel Brown,
Chair, Cuyahoga County
Democratic Party

Lisa Stickan,
Chair, Cuyahoga County
Republican Party

Your Team – What it Takes to Get Elected

Jeff Rusnak,
R Strategy Group

Jim Trakas,
American Online Learning Center