We would like to invite you to the CSCMP Columbus Roundtable blue-ribbon lunchtime Transportation Panel. Marc Blubaugh, Co-Chair of Benesch's nationally-recognized Transportation & Logistics Practice Group, will moderate the panel consisting of a shipper representative, a motor carrier representative, and a port authority sharing their respective perspectives on all of the hottest issues facing commercial users and providers of transportation and logistics services.

Register here.

Speakers

Marc Blubaugh, Co-Chair of Benesch's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group.

Benesch has been designated by U.S. News & World Report as the "Transportation Law Firm of the Year" numerous times, including for 2022. Mr. Blubaugh has also been recognized as one of the "Best Lawyers in America" in the area of Transportation Law and has been ranked in Band 1 (the highest ranking) on a national basis by Chambers. He is a Past President of the Transportation Lawyers Association, currently serves as outside General Counsel to the Intermodal Association of North America as well as to the Transportation Intermediaries Association, and is a Past President of the Columbus Roundtable of the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals. Mr. Blubaugh will moderate the panel.

Matt Hartman, Chairman & Chief Executive Officer of FST Logistics.

FST is a premier, third-party logistics provider based out of Columbus, Ohio that provides a range of motor carrier, freight brokerage, and warehousing solutions, with a particular emphasis on high-growth food and grocery brands nationwide. FST is a 100% employee owned company with over $100 million in annual revenue and over 400 employees. Mr. Hartman will provide the transportation provider's perspective.

Jim Newsome, President and Chief Executive Officer of the South Carolina Ports Authority.

The SC Ports Authority is a top 10 U.S. container port and owns and operates the Port of Charleston, Port of Georgetown, Inland Port Greer, and Inland Port Dillion. Mr. Newsome had an extensive career in the ocean container shipping industry before joining the port and, with twelve years in his current position, he is now the longest serving leader of a major container port in the United States. Mr. Newsome will provide the unique perspective of the ports.

Karen Wells, Director of Global Trade Compliance and Transportation, Global Supply Chain, at Cintas Corporation.

Cintas, a publicly-traded Fortune 500 company, had over $7 billion in sales last fiscal year and serves over a million customers in the U.S. and Canada. Cintas provides specialty products to help customers keep their facilities and employees clean, safe, and looking their best. The company's offerings include uniforms, mats, mops, restroom supplies, first aid and safety products, fire extinguishers, sprinkler systems, alarm services, and the like. Ms. Wells will provide the shipper's perspective.
