

Ethical Considerations and Procedures in Crisis and Patient Management

MARCH 10, 2006

Mr. Hooper taught a class session entitled Ethical Considerations and Procedures in Crisis and Patient Management to Baldwin-Wallace College masters students enrolled in the Health Care Administration program. This session covered practical and legal strategies for handling practice management crises and patient problems.