

Benesch Adds Associate to Litigation Team in Chicago

APRIL 25, 2023

As Benesch continues to add to its roster of top-notch legal talent, the firm is pleased to welcome Associate Andrea Hoover to the Litigation Practice Group in Chicago.

Andrea has experience conducting legal research and facilitating the resolution of legal matters in numerous areas of litigation by drafting memorandums, responses to complaints, discovery, and dispositive motions. She has also participated in case management conferences and co-defendant depositions. In her previous role, she served as primary outside counsel liaison for a large commercial client where she supervised city code violation pleadings.

Andrea earned her J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law and her B.S. in Finance from The Ohio State University.