

Benesch Adds Partner Sam Stucker, Expands Corporate Group in Chicago

MARCH 15, 2024

Benesch, one of the fastest-growing firms on the AmLaw 200 list, is pleased to announce the addition of Sam Stucker as a partner in the Corporate & Securities Practice Group in the firm's Chicago office.

Sam is an experienced corporate attorney who focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and transactional matters.

“Sam’s experience with private equity and M&A is a great fit for our growing corporate group, which is always striving to find new ways to support our clients at all stages and in all types of transactions as they grow and execute their strategic plans,” said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. “We are very pleased to welcome Sam to the Benesch team.”

Prior to joining Benesch, Sam was a partner at Kirkland & Ellis. Sam holds a B.S. in business management from Clemson University and a J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School.

Benesch’s Corporate & Securities practice represents publicly and privately held corporations; financial institutions; merchant and investment bankers; partnerships and proprietorships; venture capitalists; and entrepreneurs of all kinds in mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, and financing matters. With a deep understanding of clients’ strategic goals, Benesch’s attorneys offer business-minded legal counsel on regulatory compliance, corporate governance, and key contracts and agreements.

Benesch has pursued an ambitious national growth strategy in recent years, expanding 190% in Chicago alone since 2018. In 2023, the firm added 83 lateral hires nationwide.
