Benesch Attorney PJ Sullivan Joins Command Purpose Foundation Board of Directors

NOVEMBER 12, 2026

Benesch is pleased to announce that PJ Sullivan, a managing associate in the firm's Litigation Practice Group, has joined the Board of Directors of Command Purpose Foundation. The nonprofit provides a "base camp" for veterans as they transition from military service, helping them reclaim their identity, find renewed purpose and step into new leadership roles.

PJ is an experienced litigator who represents clients in complex civil litigation and regulatory investigations. In addition to his legal practice, he has more than 17 years of combined service as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Army and U.S. Army Reserve and currently serves as a lieutenant colonel.

"Finding purpose and community in my transition from active-duty service to law school and legal practice was critical," said PJ. "I am honored to have the opportunity to be a leader of an organization that provides precisely that kind of support to fellow veterans."

Founded in 2020, Command Purpose Foundation provides programs and community designed to help veterans recognize the value of their military experience and apply their leadership skills in civilian life. The organization supports veterans as they navigate the transition from military service and prepare to serve as leaders and pillars in their communities.

In his role on the board, PJ will support the organization as it expands its programming and reaches more veterans nationwide.
