

Benesch Chicago Office Continues Growth, Adding BigLaw Corporate Partner Tabitha Humphries

JUNE 10, 2025

Benesch, one of the fastest-growing firms on the Am Law 200 list, is thrilled to welcome Tabitha Humphries as a partner in the firm's Corporate & Securities Practice Group.

"Tabitha's extensive experience in financing transactions across industries makes her a valuable addition to our Corporate & Securities Practice Group," said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. "Her deep knowledge of investment-grade facilities, leveraged loans and complex cross-border financing will further strengthen our team and enhance the solutions we provide to clients."

Tabitha represents lenders and borrowers across industries in a full range of financing transactions, including investment-grade facilities, leveraged loans, asset-based lending and cross-border secured credit facilities. Her knowledge also spans acquisition financings, liability management transactions, debtor-in-possession financings and exit financings.

A recipient of the 2020 40 Under 40 Award from The Secured Finance Network, Tabitha is dedicated to serving pro bono clients in immigration, tenants' rights and other matters. Before joining Benesch, she served as counsel at Skadden.

Benesch's Corporate Practice Group continues to set the standard for excellence in corporate legal services.
