Benesch is pleased to announce that Government Relations Manager Rachel Winder received the Excellence in Government Relations Award from the American College of Radiology.

The recognition highlights Winder's leadership of the Ohio Radiological Society's (ORS) government relations program, which is managed by Benesch. In her role, Winder oversees advocacy and legislative efforts on behalf of radiologists and the patients they serve, advancing key initiatives across Ohio.

The Excellence in Government Relations Award recognizes chapters that demonstrate effective engagement in critical areas, including state and federal policy, grassroots advocacy, reimbursement issues, regulatory affairs, and the protection of access to care.
