

Benesch Launches New Website and Refreshed Brand Reflecting Firm's Growth and Momentum

FEBRUARY 25, 2026

Benesch is thrilled to announce the launch of its new website and refreshed brand, designed to more accurately reflect the firm's evolution, continued growth and increasingly sophisticated client work while providing an improved user experience.

Rooted in nearly nine decades of service excellence, Benesch has expanded significantly across key markets nationwide while deepening its capabilities in complex litigation, corporate transactions, real estate and other strategic practice areas across industries. The new website highlights the firm's distinctive combination of high-performing legal counsel, agility and client-centered service.

"Our firm has evolved meaningfully in recent years," said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. "Clients are trusting us with increasingly complex matters, and we continue to attract exceptional talent. The new website and brand better represent who we are today and the experience we strive to deliver, both internally and externally."

The refreshed brand emphasizes Benesch's longstanding commitment to delivering a better, more valuable experience for clients and a better, more rewarding experience for its people, which is a philosophy that continues to drive the firm's growth and retention. The website introduces a more modern, intuitive interface, clearer articulation of practice strengths and expanded storytelling around client outcomes and firm culture.

"The objective was not simply to modernize the site visually, but to better communicate what makes Benesch special," said Chief Marketing Officer Jeanne Hammerstrom. "Our clients and lateral talent consistently describe the firm in terms of sophistication, agility and experience. This new website ensures our digital presence reflects the reality of how we work, how we serve clients and the value we deliver."

Benesch is a high-performing, nationally recognized law firm delivering sophisticated legal counsel with a distinctive level of humanity, agility and business insight. Home to approximately 500 attorneys across six offices nationwide, the firm continues to grow in response to client demand.
