Benesch is proud to announce that Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg has been named to the 2026 Lawdragon 100 Managing Partners You Need to Know, a prestigious honor recognizing law firm leaders who are shaping the future of the legal profession.

The distinction celebrates leaders who inspire and guide their firms through a rapidly evolving legal landscape. Honorees are recognized for their vision, inclusivity and ability to drive success in the face of economic and industry challenges. This year's list highlights managing partners who are not only accomplished legal professionals but also champions of culture, innovation and opportunity.

Since becoming managing partner in 2015, Gregg has led Benesch through a period of extraordinary growth and transformation. Under his leadership, the firm has expanded into key markets including Chicago, San Francisco and New York, while debuting and advancing more than 60 places in the Am Law 200 rankings. Gregg leads with heart and purpose and is known for his strategic insight, people-first approach and commitment to fostering a collaborative, inclusive environment where attorneys and staff can thrive.

"We are thrilled to see Gregg recognized among the nation's most accomplished managing partners," said Ira Kaplan, executive chairman at Benesch. "His vision, energy and unwavering commitment to our people and clients have been the driving force behind Benesch's sustained growth and continued success."

Gregg's leadership has been instrumental in building Benesch's reputation as a destination for top legal talent and a trusted partner to clients nationwide. He is widely regarded for his ability to unite teams, champion innovation and maintain a relentless focus on client service. Gregg's dedication to culture and performance has earned him recognition as a Most Loved CEO, a BTI Client Service All-Star, inclusion in the Ohio 500 and a finalist for the EY Entrepreneur Of The Year® East Central Award.
