Benesch Marketing & Business Development Team Again Named Finalist for “Best Business Team” by The American Lawyer

AUGUST 15, 2025

Benesch is proud to announce that The American Lawyer (ALM) has named the firm’s Marketing & Business Development team a finalist for its prestigious Best Business Team award, one of the highest honors in the legal industry, for the second year in a row.

From an “extremely crowded and competitive field,” ALM selected Benesch and seven other finalists for their outstanding achievements and identifiable impact on their organizations, from driving firm growth and elevating client service to fostering innovation and operational excellence.

“We are honored to once again be recognized among such an exceptional group,” said Benesch Chief Marketing Officer Jeanne Hammerstrom. “This recognition reflects the incredible talent, dedication and creativity of our Marketing & BD team, who continually raise the bar in supporting our attorneys, advancing our brand and enhancing the client experience. We’re also grateful for the continued support and empowerment we receive from firm leadership, which enables us to deliver at the highest level.”

Winners will be announced at The American Lawyer Industry Awards gala this November in New York City.
