PRESS RELEASES

Benesch Partner Richard Tracanna Named to 2026 Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Tax Lawyers

JUNE 24, 2026

Featured Practices: Tax

Benesch is pleased to announce that Partner Richard (Rick) Tracanna has been named to the 2026 Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Tax Lawyers guide, which recognizes top attorneys advising on complex tax matters worldwide.

The Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Tax Lawyers guide honors leading practitioners who advise on the tax aspects of mergers and acquisitions and other sophisticated transactions; navigate evolving international tax laws and policies; handle high-stakes disputes and litigation; and counsel clients on private wealth and related matters.

Rick focuses his practice on corporate, partnership, and real estate taxation. His experience includes guiding clients through complex transactional tax issues. He regularly advises clients on the tax implications of M&A transactions, corporate restructurings, partnership and joint venture formations, and equity compensation matters.

With decades of experience, Rick is widely recognized for helping businesses, founders and private equity sponsors structure and execute transactions in a tax-efficient manner.

Lawdragon selects honorees through a combination of independent research, submissions, and peer evaluation, highlighting lawyers who have made a significant impact in their field.

View the full list of honorees: The 2026 Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Tax Lawyers | Lawdragon