Benesch Partner Seth Kleinman Featured in Bloomberg Law Article on Private Credit Risks

NOVEMBER 7, 2025

Benesch Partner Seth Kleinman, Vice-Chair of the firm's Restructuring & Bankruptcy Practice Group, was quoted in the recent Bloomberg Law article titled "Private Lender Moves Risk Extend-and-Pretend Path to Bankruptcy."

In the piece, Bloomberg Law highlights the growing trend in the private credit market where lenders are extending maturities-despite underlying financial distress-in hopes of avoiding full-blown restructurings. Kleinman cautioned that some of these extensions may merely delay the inevitable.

"Of the debt coming due soon or in the near to medium term, there's a lot of reluctance in the marketplace from lenders to enter a real messy restructuring unless they absolutely have to," said Seth Kleinman.
