

Benesch Ranks in BTI Innovation Builder

SEPTEMBER 6, 2018

Benesch is proud to announce that it has been recognized in the first ever BTI Innovation Builder. This report looks at how clients rank law firms and legal service providers in innovation and technology prowess. According to the report, corporate counsel single out Benesch as one of only 28% of firms clients see as a BTI Innovation Builder-these are the firms bringing change to the legal market through new technology, services, strategies, or structures.
