Featured Industries: Cannabis, Construction, Energy, Real Estate, International Trade & Supply Chain Management, Retail & E-Commerce, Transportation & Logistics

Benesch has once again been recognized by Chambers and Partners as one of the nation's leading law firms in its Chambers USA 2026 guide, with 43 Benesch attorneys and 21 practice areas ranked-a 10% increase in both attorney and practice rankings from 2025. Benesch continued its upward momentum in the Chambers USA 2026 rankings, with significant advancements across key practice areas, one new practice ranking and five first-time ranked attorneys, reflecting the strength, depth and dedication of talent across the firm.

Benesch earned a first-time ranking in Litigation: White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations, debuting at Band 2. Among those attorneys receiving first-time Chambers rankings:

- Jonathan Todd - International Trade: Customs (in addition to his continued national Band 1 ranking in Transportation)
- Mark Keaney - Energy & Natural Resources, Ohio
- Adam Primm - Labor & Employment, Ohio
- Gregory Phillips - Litigation: General Commercial, Ohio
- Christopher T. Grohman - Litigation: White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations, Illinois

Several Benesch attorneys also moved up in band, including Jennifer Hoover and Michael Barrie (Bankruptcy/Restructuring, Delaware); Hanna Conger (Energy & Natural Resources, Illinois); Jason Greis (Healthcare, Illinois); Nicole Wrigley (Litigation: General Commercial, Illinois); and Daniel Meier (Healthcare, New York).
