Benesch Partners Michael Barrie, Paul Kremer and David Pope were mentioned in a recent Law360 article for their representation of TopstepTrader in a dispute involving payment processor Nuvei.

The article, “Fintech Co. Says Nuvei Bungled Mastercard Transactions,” highlights TopstepTrader's allegations that Nuvei improperly handled certain Mastercard transactions, resulting in significant disruptions to the company's business operations. The lawsuit centers on claims that the payment processing issues caused financial harm and affected TopstepTrader's ability to serve its customers.

Barrie, Kremer and Pope serve as counsel to TopstepTrader in the dispute, which is currently pending in federal court.
