PRESS RELEASES

Benesch Welcomes Back Partner Alex Moss to Corporate Practice Group

NOVEMBER 11, 2026

Featured Practices: Corporate, Private Equity

Benesch is pleased to announce that Alex Moss has returned to the firm as a partner in its Corporate Practice Group. Based in the firm's Chicago office, Alex represents private equity funds, portfolio companies, independent sponsors and public and private companies in a broad range of strategic transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, investments, restructurings and joint ventures.

"I'm excited to return to Benesch and reconnect with so many talented colleagues and friends," said Alex. "The firm's collaborative culture and commitment to client service make it a great place to practice, and I'm grateful for the opportunity to be back."

Alex advises clients on complex transactions across a wide range of industries, including professional services, industrial services, manufacturing, healthcare, consumer products and technology. He partners closely with management teams, business owners and investors to navigate complex legal and business issues throughout the transaction lifecycle, from deal structuring and execution to post-closing integration and governance matters.

In addition to his M&A practice, Alex counsels clients on corporate governance, organizational matters and operational issues. He also represents sponsors, institutional lenders and individual investors in minority investments, co-investments and equity financings.

Alex returns to Benesch from Honigman LLP. He earned his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and his B.A., with distinction, from the University of Michigan.