Benesch is pleased to announce that Neeta Sahadev has joined the firm as a partner in its Corporate Practice Group. Based in the Bay Area, Neeta brings extensive experience advising international and domestic clients on strategic M&A transactions, cross-border deals, SPACs, joint ventures, partnerships and private investments across a wide range of industries, including technology, gaming, aviation, consumer goods, cybersecurity, e-commerce and fintech.

“Neeta’s arrival marks an exciting step in the continued growth of our M&A platform,” said Megan Mehalko, chair of Benesch’s Corporate Practice Group. “Her collaborative approach, global perspective and track record of success in complex transactions make her a tremendous asset to our clients and our team.”

Neeta has significant experience advising on the full spectrum of M&A transactions and is recognized for her ability to guide clients through every stage of the M&A process. Her diverse background, having lived and worked in the Middle East, Canada and the U.S., enables her to offer clients a uniquely well-rounded perspective and to work seamlessly with teams from a variety of backgrounds.

Reflecting on her decision to join Benesch, Neeta said:

“I am most looking forward to being part of our growing M&A platform and helping to scale and expand it alongside like-minded, motivated colleagues. I am also excited to contribute to strengthening our M&A brand and presence in the Bay Area and across the U.S. as we continue to serve a growing and impressive client base.”

Neeta’s work has been recognized with the “Emerging Leaders Award” by The M&A Advisor and the “Rising Star” award for Mergers & Acquisitions by Euromoney. She was also shortlisted for the 2025 Women in Business Law Americas Awards: North America Rising Star (Corporate M&A). Neeta serves as a board member of the South Asian Bar Association of Northern California and is a frequent author and speaker on technology and strategic private M&A matters.
