PRESS RELEASES

Benesch Welcomes Partner Katya Boyko to the Firm's Corporate & Securities Practice Group

AUGUST 20, 2024

Benesch, one of the fastest-growing firms on the AmLaw 200 list, is pleased to announce the addition of Katya Boyko as a partner in its Corporate & Securities Practice Group.

Based in the firm's San Francisco office, Katya represents private equity funds, venture capital funds and their portfolio companies, prominent financial institutions, and family offices in a wide range of complex business transactions. Her experience spans carve-out transactions, mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, private and growth equity, venture capital, and minority equity investments. Throughout her career, she has represented high-profile clients in deals exceeding $1.6 billion in value, establishing herself as a trusted advisor to both public and private corporations.

Known for her meticulous attention to detail and ability to align legal strategies with broader business goals, Katya consistently drives intricate deals to successful outcomes. Her international background adds a unique and valuable perspective to her practice, which is highly regarded by her clients.

"We are thrilled to welcome Katya to the firm," said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. "Her depth of experience and proven track record in navigating high-stakes transactions will be an invaluable asset to our clients."

Prior to joining Benesch, Katya was a partner at Kirkland & Ellis LLP. She holds an LL.M. in Corporate Governance and Practice from Stanford Law School and a Specialist in Law (J.D. equivalent) with a specialization in International Private Law from Kutafin Moscow State Law University.