

Benesch's Corrina Wright Honored Among Crain's Cleveland Business' 2026 Notable Leaders in Communications

OCTOBER 26, 2026

Benesch is pleased to announce that Corrina Wright, Senior Director of Marketing Communications, has been recognized as one of Crain's Cleveland Business' 2026 Notable Leaders in Communications. This prestigious honor recognizes communications, marketing and public relations executives who are driving innovation, building trusted brands and engaging key audiences to support business growth throughout Northeast Ohio.

“Corrina is an exceptional leader whose creativity, strategic vision and dedication have been instrumental in elevating the Benesch brand,” said Benesch Chief Marketing Officer Jeanne Hammerstrom. “Her contributions have helped strengthen our market presence and position the firm for continued success, making this recognition especially well deserved.”

Corrina oversees Benesch's communications and branding strategy nationwide, leading an eight-person team responsible for public relations, digital marketing, advertising, thought leadership, nominations and social media. Under her leadership, the firm was recently honored by the Association of Marketing & Communication Professionals with three awards, including a Platinum Award for its website redesign and brand refresh.

With more than 17 years of experience in communications, media and public relations, Corrina works closely with firm leadership and practice groups to develop and implement strategies that elevate the firm's profile, strengthen its market position and support its business objectives. Prior to entering the legal marketing field, she worked as a news anchor and reporter for ABC, CBS and FOX TV stations across the country and earned two Emmy awards for her work.

Corrina is actively involved in both the legal marketing profession and the community. She serves as co-chair of the PR & Communications SIG for the Legal Marketing Association and is a member of the National Communication Association and Public Relations Society of America. She also serves as co-chair of the Associate Board of Shoes and Clothes for Kids and is a member of the organization's Communications Committee.
