

Blubaugh Elected First Vice President of Transportation Lawyers Association

MAY 30, 2012

Benesch is pleased to announce that Marc S. Blubaugh has been elected First Vice President of the Transportation Lawyers Association (TLA). He will serve a one-year term, which became effective May 2012.

As First Vice President, Mr. Blubaugh will also serve as editor of The Transportation Lawyer, the association's legal journal.

TLA is an independent, international bar association whose members assist providers and commercial users of logistics and transportation services. TLA is dedicated to keeping its members ahead of the constant changes in all aspects of the specialized legal environment affecting the transportation community, regardless of the particular legal discipline involved.

Mr. Blubaugh is a partner with the firm's Litigation Practice Group and serves as the Co-Chair of the firm's Transportation & Logistics Practice Group. Since 2007, The Best Lawyers in America has recognized Mr. Blubaugh as one of the "Best Lawyers in America" in the area of Transportation Law. Mr. Blubaugh has litigated a wide variety of transportation and logistics-related cases in state and federal courts throughout the U.S. as well as before administrative bodies. Among other things, he has substantial experience in representing international and domestic carriers, freight forwarders, transportation brokers, warehousemen, other third-party logistics providers, shippers and consignees in a wide variety of surface, air and ocean disputes. In addition to litigating such matters, Mr. Blubaugh also regularly consults with clients regarding contracting and regulatory issues and provides strategic advice to minimize liability for providers and commercial users of transportation and logistics services.
