

Daily Journal Names Benesch Partner Shaneeda Jaffer to 2025 Top Women Lawyers List

MAY 30, 2025

Benesch is pleased to announce that Shaneeda Jaffer has been named to the Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers list, recognizing her exceptional achievements in criminal defense and civil litigation.

This prestigious annual award honors 100 outstanding attorneys across California for their impact in the courtroom, at the negotiating table and within the legal profession. It highlights accomplished legal professionals for their leadership in advocacy and contributions to the field, celebrating excellence in litigation, corporate law and beyond.

"Shaneeda's impressive track record in criminal defense and civil litigation makes her a well-deserving honoree on the Daily Journal's Top Women Lawyers list," said Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg. "Her ability to navigate complex financial crimes, regulatory investigations and high-stakes litigation, combined with her dedication to pro bono work, sets her apart as a leader in the legal field."

A fierce advocate for justice, Shaneeda has earned a reputation for strategic problem-solving and unwavering commitment to her clients. She regularly defends individuals and corporations in complex financial crime matters, regulatory investigations and high-stakes litigation, addressing cases involving fraud, insider trading, environmental violations and corporate bribery.

Beyond her litigation successes, Shaneeda is deeply committed to pro bono work, representing incarcerated individuals and asylum seekers. Since 2012, she has been consistently recognized on the Northern California Rising Stars list for her excellence in criminal defense. Her dedication to civil and human rights dates back to law school, where she earned the prestigious NYU Global Justice and Human Rights Fellowship and gained international experience working with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in Tanzania.

To learn more about Shaneeda's practice and notable cases, visit her full profile in the Daily Journal here.