David Bluestone Mentioned in Law360 About Greenthread Patent Dispute

JULY 29, 2025

David Bluestone, partner in Benesch's Intellectual Property Practice Group, was mentioned in Law360's coverage of recent developments before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office about semiconductor patent disputes.

The article, "Stewart Undoes PTAB Decisions Axing Chip Patents," reports on acting USPTO Director Coke Morgan Stewart's decision to vacate PTAB rulings that had invalidated two Greenthread chip patents, citing the need for further discovery related to potential ties to Intel. David represents one of the petitioners in the case.
