Gregg Eisenberg Named to 2024 Top Most Loved CEOs List

DECEMBER 9, 2024

Benesch is proud to announce that Managing Partner Gregg Eisenberg has been named to the 2024 Top Most Loved CEOs list by the Best Practice Institute. This distinguished honor, based entirely on employee feedback related to satisfaction and sentiment-including the level of respect, support and sense of belonging they feel at the company-is a powerful testament to the culture and leadership Gregg has fostered within the firm.

“I am truly honored and humbled to receive this recognition, and I couldn’t be more grateful to lead such an incredible team of people who consistently go above and beyond to make Benesch one of the most respected law firms in the country,” said Eisenberg.

As part of the Most Loved Workplaces® community, Gregg demonstrates a commitment to creating an environment where employees feel valued and empowered, driving the success of leaders and their teams alike.

“This distinguished list celebrates exceptional organizations worldwide that have rated their CEOs highest on the Love of Workplace Index®,” said Louis Carter, CEO of Best Practice Institute. “These companies prioritize building a strong foundation for their leaders, championing a culture of innovation, collaboration and strategic thinking, empowering CEOs to drive success.”

In October, Benesch was named to Newsweek’s 2024 list of Most Loved Workplaces in America, ranking #58 among 200 U.S. companies.

Since becoming Managing Partner in 2015, Gregg has led the firm through substantial growth, establishing new offices in Chicago, San Francisco and New York, and significantly improving the firm's position in the Am Law 200 rankings, currently at #137. His practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, as well as public and private debt and equity financings. Gregg represents both publicly and privately held companies at various stages of growth and frequently assists clients with complex international joint ventures, supply chain, and distribution agreements.

Among Gregg’s numerous accolades, he was named a finalist for the Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2024 East Central Award by Ernst & Young LLP (EY US). Gregg has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® since 2018 in Corporate Law; Mergers and Acquisitions Law; and Securities / Capital Markets Law, and he was named a BTI Client Service All-Star in 2021.
