

Ira Kaplan Receives the Jewish Federation 2018 Gries Family Award for Community Leadership

OCTOBER 12, 2018

Benesch is pleased to announce that Chairman Ira Kaplan has received the 2018 Gries Family Award for Community Leadership by the Jewish Federation of Cleveland. This prestigious award is presented annually to an outstanding leader who has made a lasting impact on the Jewish and general communities. Ira is a role model whose commitment inspires others to become and stay involved. Through his deep involvement in both the Jewish and general communities, and his effort to bring the two together, Ira exemplifies what the Gries family had in mind when creating this award.
