Jason Greis Featured on Wealth Planning for the Modern Physician Podcast | “How Practices Can Build the Right Physician Comp Models Today and Beyond”

OCTOBER 2, 2025

Benesch Partner Jason Greis was featured on the Wealth Planning for the Modern Physician Podcast, hosted by David Mandell, to discuss one of the most pressing issues for independent groups today: physician compensation models and partnership structures.

In the conversation, Jason highlights how generational shifts and economic realities are reshaping independent practices. He notes that practices must clearly articulate the benefits of partnership—such as long-term compensation, decision-making authority and ancillary investment opportunities—and revisit their structures to remain competitive.
