Jennifer Hoover, Kevin Capuzzi and John Gentile Mentioned in Law360 on Yellow Corp. Chapter 11 Plan Proceedings

SEPTEMBER 4, 2025

Benesch attorneys Jennifer Hoover, Kevin Capuzzi and John Gentile were mentioned in Law360 for their ongoing representation of the unsecured creditors' committee in the Chapter 11 proceedings of trucking company Yellow Corp.

In this latest development, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Craig T. Goldblatt said he would tentatively approve the company's latest disclosure statement, allowing the debtor to solicit votes on its proposed liquidation plan. While Yellow's largest shareholder, MFN Partners, raised objections, including concerns over the committee's role in overseeing a post-confirmation trust, the committee confirmed its intention to appoint an independent trustee to manage claim objections.
